Your Carvery Served

Let our chefs serve you generous slices of succulent meat, alongside your pick of freshly prepared, locally sourced veg, crispy roast potatoes and homemade Yorkshire puds – just the way a carvery should be.

On Sundays, we go all out with an extra-special premium selection for the true meat lovers among you – it's the roast you've been waiting for.

We've got vegan guests covered too, with tasty options like the not-to-be-missed Vegan Wellington.

Top it all off with your favourite sauces, trimmings and lashings of rich gravy.

The Story Behind Our New Logo

You might notice our new look — but don't worry, we haven't changed what you love about Castle Carvery, Clocktower. Instead, we've refreshed our branding with care, keeping the heart of the original while giving it a proud new polish.

Our old logo was created with a lot of love (and maybe a bit of Photoshop!). It had charm, familiarity, and history — and we knew we couldn't just throw it out. So, we kept the elements that mattered and built on them.

Look Closer — There's More Than Meets the Eye

This new logo isn't just a pretty face. It's packed with meaning, designed for both our guests and our team members:

Two Welcoming Guards – Now one male, one female, with friendlier faces and a warmer feel.

A Chef's Hat – Hidden in the castle to celebrate the importance of great food and proud chefs.

Beer and Wine – Our guard doesn't just carry a pint anymore — now he's got something for everyone.

Three Hidden Cs – They stand for Considerate, Collaborative and Conscientious — the values our team lives by every day.

Freshness Up Front – Alongside our signature roast meats, you'll see vibrant touches of green and orange, representing the delicious veg we serve with pride.

Norfolk Roots – From the colours of the Norfolk flag to the lavender in the logo and around the restaurant, our identity is proudly local.

Why It Matters

This logo is more than a symbol — it tells our story. You'll see its details revealed through our menus, marketing and subtly scattered around you. It's here to reflect who we are: a warm, family-friendly carvery built on community, good food, and good times.

Family. Friends. Good Times. Always.
